ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE
ELIZABETHTOWN, PENNA.

Here I am, one and myself
Empty and lonely with so many people near me
I'm so dependent on the world for my existence
People to need and care for me
When I crave for it most
I'm so weak when I have no one to lean on
Now and then a time of inner searching
That satisfies my soul
I need that helping hand
To lift me out of the darkness of my mind.

I watched you arrive, here, on campus.
 The class of 1975 kind of innocent and maybe a little scared. You made new friends quickly; who will become old friends quickly, as you continue to make new friends. Friends. Some academics.
 A prof who calls you by your first name,
 even in the BSC. I watched you arrive.
 You came. You see. You have yet to conquer.

May Day 1971

When I look back on May Day it is hard to remember. Warm rain so typical of E-Town moved the activities of the day to the shelter of the gym. Outside remained the tents of those protesting the war in Vietnam. Yet, inside the photographers were busy capturing the smiles of the court and the queen. The irony of it all!

Front: Tricia Wright. Back: Sherry Bubbs, Melissa Chance, Ann Smith, Pam Brown, Suzette Jones, Marie Moyer, Lynn Coggins, Sue Miller, Dee Painter, Jane Wiley, Barb Squires.

Homecoming —
Smiling faces
Old acquaintances
Trying to remember those fond recollections
Of years gone by.
Homecoming —
Yelling cheers
Soccer players
Scoring goals against Textile
With determined minds to win,
But still uncertain.
Homecoming —
We won!
Balloons float to the sky
People shout
Spirits exalt with pride
The queen's gentle smile
Saying the team's alright.
Homecoming —
Time of parting
Saying good-bye
Fond remembrances whispering
See ya the coming year!

The open road of October calls
Waiting with open arms
Golden autumn
Crisp red apples
Brisk chilly days
Spent huddling together at soccer games
To urge the Jay's on.
Love whispers in the streets
A hello to warm the cool afternoon
Leaves falling now and then
Floating brown and beautiful
Brittle to the touch
Swirling with the breezes.
I remember the day
You gave me a simple brown October leaf
That I pressed between the pages of my mind
And the marigold
Freshened by the morning dew
Can you recall how the sun reflected
Over the gentle ripples of water
As we gazed into the lake
Thinking of our love found only as a beginning
That will warm our winter to come.

“The Trial”

Eat It

April 24, 1971

One day in April,
I put down my books and picked up a banner
To join thousands in the street;
To stop war in a weekend.
And now it is May,
The killing goes on.
I put down my books and pick up a diploma . . .
To stop war in a lifetime?

It Always Rains!

When the first rain comes I know the second and third and on and on are not far behind. In all my years I have never been anywhere that has as much and as constant rain. Rain, rain go away; come again during the spring monsoon.

Sometimes the rain is warm and I get as wet and feel as refreshed as nature must.

But, good rain or not so good, why are there so many earthworms and why must they die on my sidewalks?

My thoughts wander back to the still vivid memories
Of peaceful walks at twilight
When sun painted the sky with brilliant reds and golds
As we talked of life and our new found love.

I cannot remember the precise moment
Or the exact day;
But the touch of your hand caressing mine
Told me that I was never to be alone again.

The times pass
And the love we know flourishes
Always to be replenished
As we walk among the world God gave us to share as one.

Love Is . . .

Dubious Achievements

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
welcomes the graduating seniors

TO THE CLASS OF 1972:

That time has come when you will receive your degrees and leave Elizabethtown College to pursue your vocation or profession. I hope that your class will join with the alumni of the past years in their on-going and increasing interest and support of our College.

As one of the prime constituencies of Elizabethtown College we must participate with our time and ideas if we believe in private education.

As alumni, we are proud of the increasing recognition by business, professions and the public of Elizabethtown College and its graduates. We must continue our involvement to add to this deserved recognition.

All alumni join me in congratulating you on your success to date and wishing you continued success in the future.

Sincerely,

John F. Chubb '61, President

A high-contrast black and white photograph of bare trees against a bright sky. The image is dominated by dark, intricate branches that crisscross the frame. A central, thicker branch rises from the bottom left towards the middle. To its right, another branch extends horizontally. The background is a stark, bright white, creating a silhouette effect for the trees. The overall mood is stark and contemplative.

— tomorrow is our permanent address and there they'll scarcely find us (if they do, we'll move away still further: into now)
